ATTACHMENT B

The water debt (Attachment C), the cost recovery debt (Attachment D) and the other debt (Attachment F) are largely related to properties for which applicant U.S. Bank National Association serves as Trustee. That debt, therefore, is not the obligation of U.S. Bank in its individual corporate capacity, but rather the debt is the obligation of the Trusts and the mortgage servicers. For debt identified in the U.S. Bank name alone, we are researching whether the properties are also held in Trust. For those properties that are U.S. Bank debt we are actively working toward resolving that debt.

CERTIFICATION REGARDING SLAVERY ERA BUSINESS

U.S. Bank National Association was formed from the following major banks:

1. Star Bank, National Association (Cincinnati, Ohio) changed its name to Firststar Bank, National Association (Cincinnati, Ohio) effective February 1999;
2. Mercantile Bank National Association (St. Louis, Missouri) merged into Firststar Bank, National Association (Cincinnati, Ohio) effective April 2000;
3. United States National Bank of Oregon (Portland, Oregon) merged with First Bank, National Association under the title U.S. Bank National Association effective August 1997;
4. U.S. Bank National Association merged into Firststar Bank, National Association, and the succeeding bank, changed its name to U.S. Bank National Association effective August 2001;
5. MUFG Union Bank, National Association merged into U.S. Bank National Association effective May 5, 2023 following its acquisition by U.S. Bancorp on December 1, 2022.

These banks were acquired through mergers and acquisitions of numerous smaller banks. There are five hundred and forty-seven U.S. Bank National Association predecessors. Thirty-four predecessors were founded before the abolition of slavery in December 1865. Thirteen of the pre-1866 predecessors were established in southern slave-holding states and territories, including Kansas, Kentucky, Missouri and Tennessee.

In 2005, the bank conducted a review of historical records held in various external repositories. As a result of that review, U.S. Bank National Association has identified external records of its predecessors which may necessitate disclosure. The conveyance records, while showing no record of direct ownership of enslaved individuals contained records of founders and/or directors of predecessor banks owning enslaved individuals, as well as a record where an enslaved individual was the collateral for a loan. Specifically, the first president of predecessor Marion National Bank of Lebanon, Kentucky (founded in 1856), Benedict Spalding, owned two enslaved individuals in 1850. In 1860 someone with a similar name "Benidict Spalding" is also listed as having owned fourteen enslaved individuals. In addition, certain members of the Marion National Bank of Lebanon's board of directors (called "commissioners") owned approximately forty-seven enslaved individuals in total (the records include abbreviated names which we conclude may be references to commissioners). The first president of predecessor First National Bank of Clarksville, Tennessee (founded in 1865), S.F. Beaumont, owned one enslaved individual in 1860. The first president of predecessor St. Louis Building and Savings Association, Missouri (founded in 1857), Marshall Brotherton, owned ten enslaved individuals in 1850 and four enslaved individuals in 1860.
