

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Lillian Drummond, a well known advocate for seniors and low-income residents on the westside of Chicago, transitioned at the age of 104 years, and after decades of advocating for basic human rights, decency and quality of life; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Lillian Drummond, in 2004, fought tirelessly for the creation of the Austin Satellite Senior Center, which brought space for seniors to receive resources and support in the community in which they lived; and

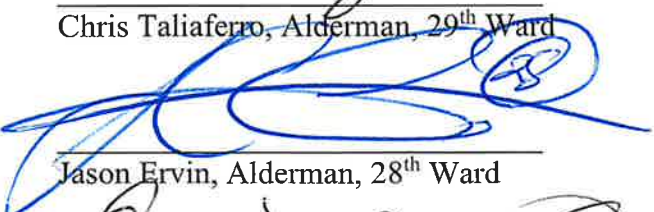

WHEREAS, While at the Austin Satellite Senior Center, Lillian Drummond served to ensure that seniors received assistance through CEDA and LIHEAP and continued her assistance during Chicago's fight through the Covid-19 Virus.

WHEREAS, Roman Marrow, a respected community leader, has initiated this process to recognize the decades of commitment and service of Lillian Drummond, much of it through her work out of the Austin Satellite Senior Center, by the renaming of the Austin Satellite Senior Center, to reflect and honor the life of Lillian Drummond.

WHEREAS, Lillian Drummond has gained the admiration and respect of the Austin Community, community organizations, community advocates, elected officials and all that have come to know and love her.

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor of the City of Chicago, Alderpersons Chris Taliaferro 29th Ward, Jason Ervin, 28th Ward and Emma Mitts, 37th Ward, do hereby honor Ms. Lillian Drummond with renaming the Austin Satellite Senior Center, the Lillian Drummond Austin Satellite Senior Center.

Chris Taliaferro, Alderman, 29th Ward

Jason Ervin, Alderman, 28th Ward

Emma Mitts, Alderman, 37th Ward